Victory Garden School March 19th

All Day Program At College
Starting at 8 a.m. State
Ag Man Coming To Assist

Plans have been completed with university officials to hold a one day Victory Garden School at the Junior College. Dr. N. D. Peacock and Prof. Lyle L. Davis of the university will assist the agricultural staff members of the Junior College in putting on this school. Every person in this section who is interested in growing a garden this year should make plans to attend this school.

Carnicus Was Good Show, Say All

Good crowd, good show, and a good time had by all were some of the major features of the annual Carnicus, a cross between a carnival and a circus, held at the Junior College on Tuesday evening. The physical education department really proved its worth and its ability to provide several hours of the entertainment to quite a large number of Martin citizens who attended the program, which was as follows:
1. Crowning of Queen Carni (Naomi Lunsby) and King Cus (Ira Long) by J. Paul Phillips.
2. Physical Fitness, Freshman Girls.
3. Rotary Gymnastics, All Men, Marshall Field, student in charge.
4. American Folk Dances, Freshman Girls.
5. Calisthenics, All Men, Marshall Field, student in charge.
6. Original Group Dances, by Freshman Girls.
7. Ranger Conditioning, Sophomore Men, Luke Burkett, student in charge.
8. Jiu Jitsu, Freshman Men, Warren Webb, student in charge.
9. Techniques of Body Movement, Preliminaries for Modern Dance, Sophomore Girls.
10. Boxing Match, Charles Gordon vs. Duke Walker. (Walker defeated Gordon and is now lightweight champion.) Referee, Bragaw of C.A.A.
11. Tumbling, Sophomore Men, Warner Fisher and Oswald Thomas, students in charge.
12. Drill Formations, Naval Cadets, Cadet Foster in charge.
13. Wrestling, Warner Berry vs. Henry Gibson, Referee, Runkel of C.A.A.

Navy Cadet Training Personnel

The Naval Aviation cadet training program conducted jointly at Martin by the University of Tennessee Junior College and Gill-Dove Airways, has reached a magnitude that few local people realize. The 24 local people pictured above, plus one other member of the College faculty, are devoting full or part time to the training of these cadets and attending to their welfare. They are:

BACK ROW, Left to Right—Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Davis, Mitchell, Bowman, Bandy, Paul Meek, Barnes, Knepp, Pannel, Hayes, Holly Lindbeck, J. R. Meek, Jr., Mrs. Stauleup. FRONT ROW, Left to Right—Mrs. Smith, Miss Thompson, Stanford, Gil Stauleup, S. R. Woods (coordinator), Horton, Miss Watkins, Miss Barger.

D. C. Allen, who also has a part in the program, was away on school business when the picture was taken.

Kroll Novel Published

PERILOUS JOURNEY, written by Kroll in collaboration with the late Clifford Sublette, will be published by Bobbs-Merrill on March 17. Price is $2.75. The publishers characterize this latest novel by Mr. Kroll as a long, stirring historical adventure tale against a fresh and little known background. It is set on the Mississippi River and Natchez Trace in the years 1821 and 1822.

On March 20 H. H. Kroll will autograph books at Gerber's in Memphis, the party to be sponsored by the Memphis branch of the Pen Women, and Gerbers Store. Kroll will broadcast over WMC Saturday morning with Olivia Browne, according to present plans, and on Friday, March 19, Marshall Wingfield will review the book over the same station at 8:15 a.m. Wingfield will also give a review in the Gerber auditorium on March 20, during the autographing.

STUDENTS TO LEAVE FOR U.T.

The University of Tennessee Junior College will lose six of its most charming students next week to big U. T. at Knoxville. Among those planning to leave March 17 are: Ruth Phillips, Margaret DeBow, Wanda Maloney, Robbie McCullough, Ruth Holmes and Sarah Matthews. All of these girls attended summer school here last summer and plan to continue their studies in home economics during the coming summer. Regardless of all their hints about disliking study, long lessons, etc., obviously they hate to leave. Surely our loss will be Knoxville's gain. Best of luck, girls!

Junior College To Give Navy V-12 Tests

The University of Tennessee Junior College has been designated as one of the centers for the giving of qualifying tests for the Navy college training program, known as the V-12 program. The tests will be given on Friday, April 2 from 9 until 11 a.m. Since another testing will not be held for six months all high school seniors and college students eligible are urged to make arrangements for this one.

The purpose of the V-12 program is to produce naval officers. High school seniors, high school graduates, and college students who appear to have potentialities for ultimate selection as officers will be chosen for college training. The plan is that this college training will be carried on while the men are on active duty, in uniform, receiving pay, and under general military discipline. Men already enlisted in any branch of the armed services such as V-1, V-5 and V-7 reserves are not eligible for the V-12 program.

The following are eligible:
(a) High school and preparatory graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 20th birthdays by July 1, 1943, regardless of whether they are now attending college.

(b) High school and preparatory seniors who will be graduated by July 1, 1943, provided they will have attained their 17th but not their 20th birthdays by that date.

(c) Students who will have attained their 17th but not their 20th birthdays by July 1, 1943, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but are now continuing their education in an accredited college or university.

Further qualifications for selection state that the applicant must:
(a) Be a male citizen of the United States.

(b) Be morally and physically qualified for this program including a minimum uncorrected visual acuity of 18/20 for each eye.

(c) Be unmarried and agree to remain unmarried until commissioned, unless sooner released by the Navy department.

(d) Evidence potential officer qualifications, including appearance and scholarship records.

All boys who are interested in this program are urged to write or call at the Junior College and secure qualifying admission blanks for the tests from Executive Officer Meek.

Speech Arts Club

The activities of the Speech Arts Club have concerned girls chiefly because the boys have been too concerned about the war. The program which have been presented were based on the war effort.

Speeches were given by Betty Jane Wilson, James Irwin, Tom Prewitt, Ruth Holmes, Marion Caruthers and Robbie McCullough

Junior College Host To Literary Contest

District Contest To Be held April 2—Includes High School Students From Seven Counties

The English Department of the University of Tennessee Junior College will sponsor again this year a preliminary district literary contest for high school students from seven counties in this section of the state: Benton, Carroll, Gibson, Henry, Lake, Obion and Weakley. There will be held six other similar tournaments in other parts of the state, all under the sponsorship of the Tennessee Interscholastic Literary League, with headquarters at the University at Knoxville.

Any high school student in this district is eligible to enter one of the various contests, such as debate, extemporaneous public speaking, original oratory, declamation, dramatic and humorous reading, oral interpretation of poetry and acted drama. Winners in these various contests will go to Knoxville to compete for state honors. In the past few years this district has performed unusually well in the state contest.

Some of the high schools that have competed in recent years, and that are expected to send representatives again this year are: Bradford, Cottage Grove, Dresden, Dyer, Grove High, Hornbeak, Huntingdon, Martin, Milan, Puryear, Trenton, Ridgely and Sharon.

In past years the Speech Arts Club has served as hostess to the visiting speakers and debaters, and it will serve in the same capacity this year by furnishing chairmen for the contests, a welcome committee, and a committee to look after stage settings for the dramatic teams. This student club has contributed much to the success of the district contest at the Junior College.

The subject for debate this year is a timely one: "Resolved, That a Federal World Government Should Be Established."

Judges for the contests are selected from the faculty of the Junior College, the Faculty Woman's Club, and interested citizens in town.

State Student Christian Conference

The U. T. Junior College Student Christian Association elected four delegates to the State Student Christian Conference, which met recently in Nashville. Warren Clendenin, Margaret DeBow, Virginia Stephenson and Juanita Pafford attended the conference which was held at Vanderbilt. Searritt and Peabody colleges and West End Methodist Church. About one hundred delegates from different colleges of the state attended the programs, which lasted for about three days. Dr. Homer Chiab Chin Lah from China, the Rev. Mr. Robert Hamill, pastor of Lyons Methodist Church in Iowa, and Dean Faulkner of Fisk University were the main speakers.

On Saturday of the Conference each person met with one of three commission groups. "Implementing Democracy," "Applying Our Religion," and "Organizing the Peace," were topics which the various groups discussed. The race problem was discussed in each of the groups, and as a result of these discussions an interracial meeting of all state colleges, both white and colored, is being planned for next year and the year following.

School Visitation

The faculty members of the Junior College will soon be traveling for the school to present to school officials and high school graduates the various services offered by the University of Tennessee Junior College in the West Tennessee territory. The program covers about fifty counties and a total of a hundred and fifty high schools.

Among the instructors who will make these public contacts are Mr. Farrar, Mrs. Gardner, Coach Hayes, Miss Hawkins, Mr. Horton, Dr. Lindbeck, H. H. Kroll, Mr. Knepp, Prof. McMahan, Mr. Meek, Mr. Stanford, J. Paul Phillips, Miss Swindler, Mr. Thompson and Mr. Bowman and S. R. Woods.

"The home front cannot be neglected," Mr. Meek stated, "because there is a war front, without serious consequences to the war effort itself."

Most of the contact will be completed by April 1, when many of the high schools will begin to close.

MAJOR GATLIN TO RETURN TO STATES

Major C. E. Gatlin, who has been instructor in a tank division in the Hawaiian Islands for about fourteen months, arrived in Clarendon, Texas, last Saturday, where his family has been since he left for foreign service. He has been ordered to report to Camp Campbell, Ky., March 28. Mrs. Gatlin and three children expect to return to Martin and occupy their home on Moody avenue by April 1.

Major Gatlin first served as adjutant of the 162nd Tank Battalion at Fort Benning, Ga. He later was in Fort Leavenworth, Kans., for special work; then returned to Fort Benning. He was in Martin on leave when Pearl Harbor was bombed. On December 16th he was ordered to San Francisco, and sailed December 26, 1941.

It is a privilege to have this estimable family again residents of Martin and Major Gatlin near enough to come home often.

Expansion Plans

Much that is not apparent on the surface is going on at the Junior College with reference to the war program. Mr. Meek is making every effort to expand the scope of cadet training at the school.

When questioned about the possibilities, Mr. Meek stated, "Forty percent of the operations of the CPA program will be eliminated, according to orders of the war department. This elimination will be of schools offering ground training in flying alone."

REED HALL NEWS

Something new has been added to Reed Hall! Mary Helen has her ring and is it beautiful. We were all shocked stiff by it. Congratulations to you both. . . . Boy, did some of these kids have fun. Duke and Bill really had fun visiting Dresden this week end. Poor Mrs. Glover. Oh, Jane was there too. . . . Sara O. is sitting here mooning over a nice letter. Ask her about her answer some day. . . . Martha B. is really getting around. She sure has been having a good time on week ends. We can't decide who the boy is. . . . That Nancy gal was sure having a swell time at the dance the other night with Hoot. . . . Did anyone notice Ruth P. grinning last Thursday. She had a visitor Wednesday night that really pepped her up. . . . Klyda was really having the time of her life when I saw here a Sunday night or so ago. . . . Has anybody noticed a difference in Sarah M.? Well, she has shocked us all. . . . Looks like the sandman doesn't come very early to the serenaders. Some very beautiful sounding bar- itones, tenors, etc., serenading a certain Reed Hall girl quite often at 2 o'clock. . . . Who was walk- ing home with Amanda Harding Wednesday night. It couldn't have been Gene Hart, or could it? . . . Corrine seems to be enjoying the company of a certain Navy boy. My did you ever notice his darling eyes when he grins. . . . Look like Mary B. is taking the bad news with her chin up. Keep up the good work Mary. . . . Seems like Wanda M. is still grinning when she gets mail from California. . . . Has any one failed to notice Jane Warren's watch? Its really a beauty. . . . Lillian has been wear- ing the most beautiful smile. I wonder why she is so happy? . . . Pet Crox has decided that Hobart is still ok. . . . Lil Argo seems to have quite a "crush" on a cer- tain Navy lad. . . . Boy, does that Elkins gal like to go to Dyer. I just know her relations are that entrancing. . . . Which is it Teddy, Catherine or Jimmy. . . . Boy, if you ever want some one to keep a secret just tell the Meek child. . . . If you need a couple of nice ones just ask Flud and Kester. . . . Jean Walker seems to have a new plaid shirt. We can't think who it belongs to. If you find out let us know. . . . I wonder why Celestia was asking when Knoxville let out for spring holidays. . . . Lee Young has a nice helper at the dining hall every once in a while. He carries glass- es for her. I wonder who is so nice. . . . Sis is still getting around and she still holds the prize.

CONFETTI

What has happened to Celestia Chamberlain? She says she is off all men and doesn't like any one. . . . John here is "Dear" hunting this season. . . . Wonder why you can't you ever de- cide which one? Every time we think you are settled you jump right over to someone else. . . . Lillian, who was it that said if she didn't get what she wanted the first time she just tried, tried again? Don't let it get you down. . . . Juanita Winston said if it was- n't for one person she sure would dislike school. . . . What happened in Obion Coun- ty last week end? Will Duke and Bill ever tell? . . . Wonder why Rebecca Corley was so happy last Tuesday? Could it be the four letters at one time from the same you-know-who. Boy! Does the Hurt House rate! Having a visit by the executive officer at midnight. . . . It looks like all the boys have joined the House of David with all the mustaches. . . . Wonder why Joan doesn't like men, or does she? . . . Who is it that can make Lil- lian Turner fall down the steps. Isn't Evelyn Brock getting a lot of mail from California. . . . Wonder why Amanda turned down a date with the soldier from Camp Tyson? . . . Why was Jo Moseley and Evelyn Brock so interested in staying in Martin last week. . . . It looks as though the Baptist preacher has gone hunting—and I do mean for women. Oh, well, its an old familiar saying that every preacher needs a wife. . . . That was a good looking boy who flew down from Alaska to see "Boots." He wore a pair of silver wings. . . . Billy Beard seems pretty dis- gusted with the girls in Martin. I heard him say he didn't expect to ask another one for a date. He has thought. . . . Sammy Hays seems to have been missing last week. He must have been sick. A little freshman girl missed him too. . . . Hansbrough 2 0 . . . McKinney 6 8 . . . I wonder why Jane Warren went to Paris this week end—to see relatives? . . . Bobby McLean seems to be de- voting all his time to one certain girl these days. Could anyone guess who it is? . . . Baxter Fisher finally dated that Warren girl that he has been talk- ing about so much lately. . . . I hear that Harriet Thompson has just recently acquired a pair of wings. . . . Jane Warren doing shop work— could Dale explain? . . . Is "Boots" getting Ira on her hook? I think Ira still is facing Memphis though, and not fooling with UTJC girls. . . . You should see the row between Agee and Elihu Hurt. But Mr. Meek won all rounds, so they say. . . . Why do all the boys in Sec- tion 2 of mechanical drawing want to spend the night with Clell Butts? . . . We wonder if Reelfoot Lake is pretty in the moonlight. I suppose we should ask Duke Walker and Bill Dale. . . . It couldn't be bibliographies and footnotes that Thomas and Mary Argo talk about in English class all the time, could it? Or could it? . . . What's the matter with Frank Berry and Sarah Bell? He hasn't received a special delivery from her in several weeks. Maybe it is that boy they call "Henry" at Martin College, Pulaski. . . . Gosh! Have you all seen Sarah Matthews? You should take a good look. . . . Why was Lillian Stover unhap- py the first of the week? Could it be that a certain boy was at Fort Knox, Ky. . . . What did Maurine Simmerell get in her package yesterday? He sure is good looking. . . . We are all wondering about Billy Beard's episodes in Greenfield and which one of the three girls has the key to his heart. . . . We wonder why Cleo Griffin stays at home so much lately. Could it be those three girls? Better leave them alone Griffin. . . . Blankenship, who was the home- ly-looking young lady you were with 'til one o'clock Sunday night? All other girls better watch out now that he is on the loose. . . . "Starchy" Argo has found a new love now. Who could it be, a new C.A.A.? . . . Jane Warren and Bill Dale seem to be doing all right with their week end dates. . . . What about Marshall Field's latest setup? It seems to be the real thing this time. . . . At last Mary Helen has settled down to one I wonder? . . . I gather from Libby Argo's speech that she has recently made a trip to New York. After all she may not be too far from having Northern blood in her veins.

Vounteers Take Two From Emory Riddle

On the 19th of February the University of Tennessee Junior College Volunteers met a team from the Emory-Riddle Air Train- ing base in a basketball game, which was played in the college gymnasium in Martin. This game, which was the first of a two-game series between the two teams, was won by the Orangemen by a score of 52 to 36. . . . The second game of the series was played in the armory in Un- ion City. As this was the last game of the season the Vols want- ed to do their best and did an excellent job of it by scoring 29 field goals, their best record in this bracket for the season. Their total score of 65 points and mar- gin of victory of 40 points were also the highest for this year's basketball team. . . . Although the scores of both games fail to show it, the team from Emory-Riddle fought thru both games and made them in- teresting for both the players and the spectators. . . . The scoring for boh games was as follows:

	First Game	Second Game
Clark	3	8
Austin	2	4
Prewitt	12	7
Mazanec	4	9
McClean	8	5
Long	0	0
Gordon	7	11
Brundige	8	13
Beard	0	0

Library News

There are several news books in the library which deserve hon- orable mention. Some of these are as follows: "Naval Customs, Traditions and Usage," by Leland P. Lovette. I'm sure that the Navy boys would be interested in this book. "My Name Is Frank" is a very good book written by Frank Laskier. Another valuable book is "Prelude To Chemistry" by Joan Read. This book contains material that will be of great value to chemistry students. . . . A book that has been of great interest to Tennesseans is the biography of Cordell Hull written by Harld B. Hinton. Naturally we are all interested in our secretary of state since he is from Tennes- see. One critic says, "This book is a biography of the secretary of state, by a member of the New York Times editorial staff who is also an intimate friend of Secre- tary and Mrs. Hull. Although the emphasis is upon Mr. Hull's pub- lic life, especially during the years since 1933, this book contains some material on his background, his early life and training, and closes on the day of December 7, 1941 when Cordell Hull removed his glasses and quietly but cour- ageously spoke his mind to the Jap- anese envoys."

The book entitled "A Time For Greatness" by Herbert Agar is a call to America to rededicate her- self, before it is too late, to the appreciation of democratic ideals of liberty and equality to her way of life. Mr. Agar makes a strong case for the responsibility of the United States for present war by her failure to apply these prin- ciples to economics, social, politi- cal, and spiritual life, and inter- national relationship. . . . Regional Library Service is be- ing developed in the Tennessee area of the Kentucky Dam and Reservoir by the University of Tennessee Junior College at Mar- tin through a contract with the Tennessee Valley Authority and the Tennessee State Department of Education, Division of School in providing the benefits of library service to its many employees in the counties affected by the Ken- tucky Dam project and to the families of these employees. The College and the eDpartment of Education have an abiding inter- est in total library services to the people of Tennessee. . . . Organization and development of the service was begun in Dec- ember, 1941. At present there are about seven branches and thirty- five deposit stations established with regular exchange of books being made by the regional librarians.

Miss Olive Weaver is our re- gional librarian and is now mak- ing her home here in Martin. She has done a splendid job in the differernt counties.

Washington Tea For Junior College Girls

On Saturday afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock the Advanced Meal Planning and Preparation Class of the Junior College taught by Miss Nina Swindler entertained with a lovely tea in honor of Misses Ruth Phillips, Sara Matthews, Robbye McCullough, Margaret DeBow, Ruth Holmes and Wanda Maloney, who will complete their work at the Junior College and leave for Knoxville in March. Miss Amy Nickell, wearing a combination of white net and blue taffeta, and Miss Elizabeth Young, in blue net met the guests in the entrance hall, which was decorated with spring flowers. Miss Mary Bailey, dressed in red taffeta and the guests of honor were in the receiving line to meet the guests as they came into the living room. Miss Betty Wilson, in black chiffon and velvet, and Miss Elizabeth Beckler in figured taffeta, directed the guests to the dining room where a color scheme of red, white and blue was carried out in table decorations and refreshments. The attractive centerpiece was an arrangement of red and white snapdragons in a crystal bowl surrounded by red, white and blue candles in crystal holders. Miss Jean Bomar wearing pink dotted swiss taffeta, poured hot spiced tea and Miss Margaret Stroup in pink chiffon and Miss Margaret Woody in white marquisette and taffeta, served red and white mints, rolled sandwiches tied with red, white and blue ribbon and star and bar cookies. The guest list included the Junior College girls and the faculty wives and women.

KRAZY KORNER

Fooled Again!

I asked if I could see her home. What did she say?
She said she'd send me a picture of it.
—The Panther.

Zoo Visitor: "Where are the monkeys?"
Keeper: "They're in the back making love."
Visitor: "Would they come out for peanuts?"
Keeper: "Would you?"

Professor: "What kept you out of class yesterday—acute indigestion?"
Coed: "No, a cute engineer."

Oh, Yea?

Professor: "You missed my class yesterday, didn't you?"
Student (?): "Not in the least, sir, not in the least."

In view of the gas rationing—
Boy: When we reach that bend in the road, I'm going to kiss you.
Girl: Isn't that going a bit too far?

Some Deep Thinking

"Just think of it—steak only 20 cents a pound, eggs 15 cents a dozen, chicken 10 cents a pound, and milk 5 cents a quart."
"Where?"
"Oh, nowhere, but just think of it!"
—Ward-Belmont Hyphen.

The Scientific Viewpoint

Ed: Do you believe there are microbes in kisses?
Co-ed: "Yes. That's what the scientists say."
Ed: "What disease do they cause?"
Co-ed: "Palpitation of the heart, I believe."
—Port Royal News.

Did Duke, Deedum, Jane and Bill have a wonderful week end. I hear Bill got all wet.

Blackman Hall News

Here it is almost another quarter gone, and we are losing boys and girls from our little band. There are three sophomores leaving from Blackman Hall to make their way at Big U. T. They are: Ruth Holmes, Robbye McCullough and Margaret DeBow. We wish you all the luck in the world, girls.

The Blackman Hall girls seem to be a happy bunch, especially if their boy friends from home come to see them. Marie Smothers and Catherine Champen happen to be the lucky two. Nice work if you can get it.

Juanita Pafford, our happy little songbird of the lower floor and Margaret DeBow spent their week end in Nashville with the S. C. A. Council not so long ago.

Sybil Beckam has been seen quite often with Warren Webb lately. Cute together, aren't they?

We've got a glamor girl in our midst, also. Ask Katie Taylor to smile for you, and you will see whom I mean. Her cousin thought her very attractive too.

The three imps of Blackman Hall are going to get themselves into trouble if they ain't careful. Know who I mean? Mary Anne Rainey and Juanita Brewer make such nice roommates. You just ask them the reason why.

One of our beauties in the dorm, Lindsey, is still being true, but can you blame her? I think he's cute too.

After Carnicus is over there will be a mad rush for our sophomore girls. The little blue modern dance costumes really set off some "figgers."

The two roommates, Iris Batson and Mary Miller, really know their "stuff" in the modern dance.

Harriet Thompson is really a girl about the campus. She holds down two jobs. Wish I were needed as bad as she is. The nice thing about it, she's good.

Our two fish of the dorm are Polly Ross and Allie Howell. You should just see them fly through the water at 4.00 on the Phys. Ed. days.

This Carnicus is going to bring out quite a few talents that have never been known before. Dot Cecil makes a very striking picture in "The Little Brown Jug" dance. She's very cute, too. Immy Denning should also be noticed in that respect. In her dance she shows that she should be a chorus girl as well as a campus coed. I save the best for the last. Celia Taylor receives the orchids. She's done a nice piece of work, and she catches on quick.

'Boots' Bowling is still going around with a "moon-eye" expression, wondering if Gilbert is going to leave too soon.

I guess that's the news up-to-date in Blackman Hall, except I must quote, "Ruth Holmes, I think Jimmy is cute too. Hang on kid!"

The ideal Blackman Hall girl should have:

Allie Howell's hair
Catherine Champion's eyes,
Dot Cecil's lips,
Katy Taylor's hands,
Naomi Lindsey's features,
Robbye McCullough's feet,
Juanita Pafford's brains,
Sybil Beckham's energy,
And, last, but not least, Blackie's disposition. Bye.
Miss Know-It-All.

CAMPUS LIGHTS

"Campus Lights" is a program which the Murray State College students present each year. It's a program which represents much time and work spent. This year was one of the best program they have ever given. The setting and the different numbers given by the orchestra and Glee Club were unusually beautiful.

Those from U. T. Junior College privileged to see and hear this program on Tuesday, February 23 were: Prof. J. Paul Phillips, James Thomas, Mrs. Morris, Eliz. Argo, Ava Lee Hayes, Madelyn Estes, Naomi Stover, Jimmie Phillips and Norma Estes.

U. T. J. C. vs. Austin Peay Normal

Tuesday, February 16 the University of Tennessee Junior Volunteers took their basketball game with Austin Peay Normal by the narrowest margin of the season. Although the Orangemen led at half-time by a score of 23 to 9, the Governors came back in the fourth quarter with a scoring rally which threatened to ruin the Vols. The final score was 38 for the Volunteers and 37 for the Governors of Austin Peay.

The game was interesting from the very start. The offense of the Vols was clicking more smoothly than at any other time this season. The defense of both teams was tight enough to make every score a thing to fight for.

At the beginning of the game both teams were fouling so often that few of the players could have lasted long had it kept up, but by mutual consent of the captains and coaches of both teams it was decided that the fouls should be called less freely. This, of course, made the game more interesting for both the players and the spectators.

Prewitt, who made 10 out of 15 foul shots, led the scoring with 12 points. The rest of the scoring was as follows: McClean, 9; Austin, 4; Mazanec, 4; Gordon, 3; McKinney, 2; Brundige, 2, and Long, 2.

U. T. J. C. vs. Camp Tyson

The University of Tennessee Junior College suffered its third defeat of the season at the hands of the 302nd Battalion from Camp Tyson, Tennessee. Although Captain Charlie Gordon, who led the scoring with eight points, played his best game of the season, the expert ball handling of the soldiers proved too much for the Volunteer squad.

The score at the end of the first quarter was 8 to 3 in favor of the men from Camp Tyson. By the close of the half, however, the Vols had tied the score with eight all only to fall behind in the last half and lose by the score of 34 to 28.

The scoring of the Volunteers was as follows: Gordon, 8; McClean, 5; McKinney, 7; Clark, 4; Buntin, 2, and Prewitt, 2.

Glee Club News

The Glee Club met in the dining hall lobby Tuesday night, March 2. The purpose of this meeting was for the election of officers for the spring quarter. They were as follows:

President, Warren Webb; Vice-President, Patsy Crox; Secretary-Treasurer, Corrine McDavid; Pianist, Betty Jane Wilson; Sergeant-at-Arms, Welborn England; Reporter, Betty Hart.

After the business meeting several of the club's favorite songs were sung. We regret to hear that we will lose one of our members, Sara Matthews, who is transferring to U. of T., Knoxville. Sara has been our secretary-treasurer for the winter quarter, and has been a very faithful member. We wish you luck in the future.

I am sure there are many on the campus who really should be in the Glee Club. Why not come and try singing, you might find that you have a very fine voice. Under the direction of Dr. Lindbeck we should be able to go places.

Boys and girls, Spring will soon be here. Why not start off with harmony and melody in the air.

Twice Stole Stales

Yes, twice-stole-stales is right; we even stole the title from a high school paper, "Twice-Stole-Stales," which in turn was stole from Twice Told Tales. And there you are.

Miss Hawkins: I wish all my hairs cut, please.

And there was a little moron in the dorm who called her kitty "Flannels" because it shrank from washing. Me-ew!

That Boy Next Door!

Mrs. (Faculty member, name on request, but sh-hhh! keep it dark!): "Sonny, don't you use any such bad words 'again! I'll be obliged to punish you!"

Son (Name also on request): "Mom, Shakespeare used 'em."

Mom: "Well, don you dare to play with that boy any more!"

Definition of a Professor

One who talks in some one else's sleep.

Mother: "What is your roommate like, Ann?"

Ann: "Everything I have."

The Meat Boy's Love

I neve rsausage eye sas thine,
And if you'll butcher hand in mine,
And liver round me every day,
We'll seek some ham—let far away,
We'll meat life's grown with life's caress,
And cleaver road to happiness.

*Mars was a mythological war lord.

They left behind those who in turn shall follow in their wake. They swore that any foreign power

Our country should not take. And now that they are gone away we learn, not in disgrace, just what it means to go to lunch And find a vacant place.

—William Caudel.

We think of those who left our midst

To bear our colors high, As martyrs of a common cause Who dared to fight and die.

And we, of whom are left behind To keep the old school right, We bow our heads and beg of God "Return them from the fight."

But now they've left the campus bound To be a Volunteer.

Mr. Denning recently visited the campus. Imogene was glad to see him, also his friends and the faculty.

Congratulations Naomi Lindsay and Ira Long, you made a wonderful Queen and King of Carnicus.

Miss Mary Frances Lee, a former University of Tennessee Junior College student, was recently made county agent of Bedford County. She is working with Mr. Franklin Yates.

VICTORY GARDEN

SCHOOL MARCH 19th

nation have called on every one who can do so to plant and grow a Victory Garden during 1943. This Victory Garden School should be of value even to the experienced gardener, and especially should it be of value to those who are beginners in gardening.

Friday night, beginning at 7:30, there will be held a two-hour school for grade and high school students. At this time a picture on how plants grow will be presented. All students, both town and rural, should make plans to attend this night session.

14. Gymnastic Demonstration, Jane Warren, freshman, and Novotny, C.A.A. (Novotny has been AAU runnerup in gymnastics and gave an outstanding exhibition.)

15. Presentation of Awards: College American Red Cross First Aid Class, Martin American Red Cross First Aid Class, College American Red Cross Life Saving, College Men Swimmers.

16. Pennsylvania Polka, Mixed Group.

17. Navy Achievement Test, Freshmen Men. Warren Webb, Group of Sophomore Girls.

18. Modern Dance, Voluntary student in charge.

19. National Anthem Movie.

Miss Angeline Watkins, head of the women's physical education department and Coach Joe Black Hayes, head of the men's department, are certainly to be commended for the splendid work they are doing in building the bodies of the students. The men students also cooperated to the fullest extent in presenting the program in the absence of Coach Hayes.

SPEECH ARTS CLUB

The subjects which were used were: "What We Are Fighting For," "Our Part In Winning the War," and Mary Barr gave "Winning the Peace." Patriotic songs and music were played and sung by Elizabeth Argo, Corrine McDavid, Jean Letch, Rachel Williams, Katy Taylor and Ruth Phillips. Ann Proctor, Cornelia Gladhill, Polly Ross and Marita Maxey have given numerous readings.

The different schools which the Speech Arts Club has visited are: Dresden, Martin, South Fulton, Sharon, Greenfield, Tiptonville, Troy, Ridgely, Trimble, Trenton, Dyer, Lexington McKenzie, Gibson, Gleason and Humboldt. The attitude of these high schools has been very enthusiastic. The reception of the program at Humboldt, Trenton, Tiptonville and Lexington was especially gratifying. At many of the schools the members of the Speech Arts Club were pleasantly surprised by meeting alumni of the Junior College, old friends and even relatives.

The trips were always interesting and resulted in the making of new friends and in many happy experiences. In Lexington the students of the high school entertained the members of the Speech Arts Club, after the program, at a party and coca-colas and cookies were served. Incidentally, the students had had the coca-colas for this occasion.

The popularity of this group was shown again, in Humboldt where encores were given three of the members. Ruth Phillips played about five pieces on her accordion and Corrine McDavid sang excerpt from six songs.

The Speech Arts program has been given the approval of the administrative officials of the school. It has proved to be very worth while during the distressing times in which we are now living. The club also helps each individual in overcoming any stage-fright or lack of poise which he or she may have.

The members have appeared before some of the civic organizations such as the Rotary Club, for which they have furnished three programs.

Tuesday, March 9, the Speech Arts Club was in charge of the local student assembly in which Jean Letch, Marita Maxey, Corrine McDavid, James Irwin, Mary Barr and Robbie McCullough appeared on the program.

The club is hoping to visit Camden, Big Sandy and Bruceton possibly on March the 11th or 12th. They are planning to present before the high schools of Weakley County a program publicizing aviation in this area. The next project for the members is to produce a one act play entitled, "Mrs. O'Leary's Cow."

The club wants to present 30 programs during the school year, which is a worthy goal. They have already present 20 programs.

The participants of these Speech Arts tours have done much to establish a feeling of good will between the towns which they have visited and the Junior College.

the Gill-Dove Airport has from the flight program made every effort to provide ever increasing services. Officials of the school and port confidently expect that our program here will be spared elimination, and will be, instead, considerably expanded.

Nevertheless Mr. Meek made clear the fact that final disposition has not been made, and in a manner those in close touch with the situation are holding their breath until the matter is settled.

STATE STUDENT

All of the delegates received a great deal of inspiration from this conference, and are indebted to those who made it possible for us to attend.

ALL OVER THE WORLD

America's 900,000 aviation workers

combine their skill and experience to satisfy today's demand for vital war necessities. Thanks to our airplane makers, ground crews and pilots like Capt. Haakon Gulbransen (shown here), of Pan American Airways, needed supplies are flown to our fighting men all over the world.

WAY BACK WHEN

Billy Beard seems to have had a reputation even as far back as high school days. He was voted the cutest boy in a Who's Who contest and almost got the title of being the biggest flirt. I think he missed by three votes.

"Boots" Bowling was chosen as the most beautiful senior at Whitehaven last year. That was to be expected, don't you think?

Imogene Denning won the citizenship medal in Sumner County High School. Good work, Emmy.

Anne Proctor had experience for her position as secretary of the freshman class. She was secretary-treasurer of Peabody High School.

Did you know that Sarah Matthews is a good speller? She won enough contests to be good. I hear she even won a trip to Washington.

Katie Taylor seems to be holding her own as far as grades are concerned. She has a scholarship medal for making the best grades in high school.

Marion Caruthers—Hollywood bound!! When Marion was seven years old she ran off to go to Hollywood. It took the whole police force from Nashville to bring her back. Imagine that—at her age, too.

Ira Long evidently has what it takes. He won all the honors to be had when he was a senior in high school.

No wonder Wanda Maloney piled up so many points for the black team. She was Cloverdale's star basketball player back when she was in high school.

Bobby McLean has also maintained his reputation as being an excellent athlete. He's an all-star basketball player for Alamo. That must be his basketball Celestia wears. It had an A on it.

Speaking of basketball, Maureen Simmerell was All West Tennessee. Her ability helped the Orange team defeat the Blacks.

No wonder Warren Webb was voted the most studious boy in high school. He must still be studying—take a look at last quarter's honor roll if you don't believe it.
